Alva J. McClain

"The study of God's word for the purpose of discovering God's will, is the secret discipline which has formed the greatest characters."—J. W. Alexander.

The CHARIS is proud to present our president, Alva J. McClain, recognized throughout the fundamental world as one of the outstanding Theologians and Professors of Christian Theology of today. As president of Grace Seminary since its beginning in 1937, and in similar activity prior to that time, he has directed the school through depression, war, and post-war readjustment. Today it is high on the list of Christian Seminaries in this country.

President McClain graduated from Occidental College (Phi Beta Kappa), and received his Th.M. from Xenia Theological Seminary. During his teaching career he has been awarded a D.D. from the Bible Institute of Los Angeles, and a LL.D. from Bob Jones College. His achievements in the field of Theology were recognized by the secular world in 1952 when he was chosen to be listed in "Who's Who in America."

Under President McClain there has been inaugurated and effected a type of Christian education which has as its chief spiritual goal TO KNOW CHRIST AND MAKE HIM KNOWN AS THE ONLY SAVIOUR AND LORD OF LIFE; and a school dedicated to these three principles: the highest possible academic standards, loyalty to Jesus Christ above all else, and a world-wide ministry.

Foreign Missions Fellowship

The Foreign Missions Fellowship is an agency of the Inter-Varsity Christian Fellowship operating on college campuses. The aims and activities include holding weekly prayer meetings, arranging for missionary speakers and films, providing prayer literature for the tower prayer-room, and promoting interest in missions among the students.

Child Evangelism Fellowship

Students at Grace may volunteer to be teachers of Good News Clubs with the Kosciusko County Child Evangelism Fellowship. About 300 children were reached with the gospel each week this year. Mrs. Dorothy Toirac is the Assistant Director of the County organization.

WINTER BIBLE CONFERENCE

The second annual Winona Lake Winter Bible Conference on Prophecy proved a great blessing to all who attended. Sponsored jointly by Grace Theological Seminary and the American Association for Jewish Evangelism, the sessions were held in the Seminary chapel and auditorium. Classes were dismissed all week so that full attention could be given to the prophetic ministry of the outstanding speakers. Dr. Arthur McKee of Winona Lake directed the music. On the final afternoon of the Conference, Dr. McClain read the Faculty Statement regarding the New Revised Standard Version of the Bible.

Tower Prayer-Room

Last year it looked like this

Now . . . thanks to the interest and sacrificial giving of the Foreign Missionaries of the Brethren Church, the prayer room in the Tower of the Seminary building has been beautifully carpeted and furnished. The room provides a quiet secluded place where prayer bands and individuals may intercede for those who are even now laboring in the work of the Lord throughout the world.

Bible Dedication

A most interesting chain of events brought the right Bible to its location on the pulpit of the Seminary Chapel. The native women in Africa wished to give something to Grace Seminary and sent an offering. Dr. Paul Bauman accepted that sum of money in exchange for a new Pulpit Bible left by his father, Dr. L. S. Bauman, long time Secretary of the Foreign Missionary Board of the Brethren Church. The sum of money was then returned to the Seminary. It was an additional blessing that some of the veteran missionaries from the African field could be present at the Dedication service.

Dr. Russell Barnard, Secretary of the Foreign Missionary Board, offers the prayer of Dedication before presenting the Bible to Dr. Paul Bauman, Vice-President of the Seminary.

Dr. Bauman, Rev. Koontz, Estella Myers, Grace Byron, Dr. Hoyt, Florence Bickel, Dr. Kent, Dr. Barnard.

Homiletic Seminar

Once to each Middler comes the golden opportunity to develop an exposition of a single verse of Scripture and to deliver the message before the faculty and student body in regular chapel. Thursdays are set aside for this purpose. The two Middlers selected for each week are assigned texts. They arrange for the entire service, selecting a master of ceremonies from the Junior class, choosing special music and the Scripture reading. These pictures show Donald Tschetter, from Huron, South Dakota in some of the situations familiar to everyone who has survived the Middler "Homiletic Seminar." Mr. Tschetter spoke from John 16:24 on the subject of Prayer. Al Tschiegg led the singing, and Vernon Buller sang a special number.

Herman Hein makes an announcement in chapel. . . . Dr. W. J. Sweeting and guest present "Banderilla." . . . Ding Teuling, Elisha and Elijah. . . . Jack Conner, vibraharp and marimba. . . . Captain Bundy, U. S. Air Force. . . . Rev. Don Fullerton, Princeton Evangelical Fellowship. . . . Captain Fuchida, Pearl Harbor Naval Officer, and Dr. McClain. . . . Dr. W. O. H. Garman, International Council of Churches.

Chapel Features

The middle period of the morning schedule each day in the Seminary is the chapel period. Ordinarily Tuesday features an outside speaker; Wednesday is the day of prayer and fellowship under the direction of one of the faculty members; Thursday is taken up with two Middler Seminar sermons; and Friday is especially designated for messages by various faculty members, and for monthly student body and class meetings.

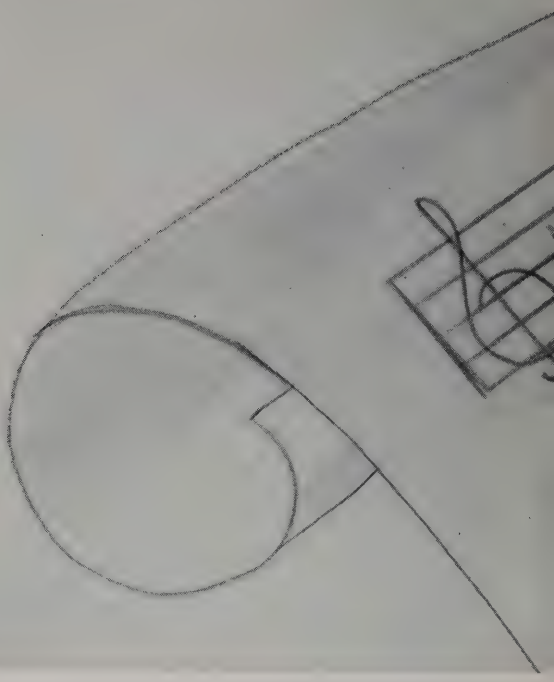
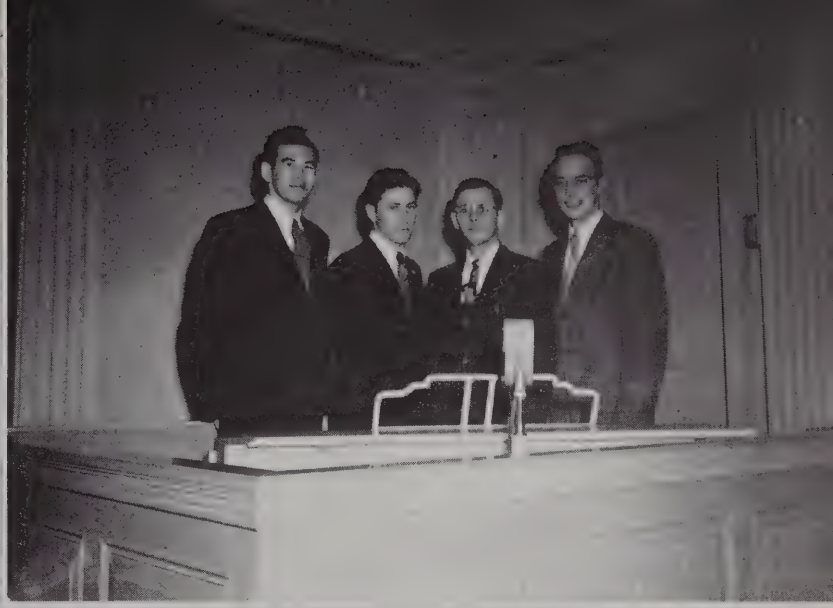
A widely heralded rally concerning the Revised Standard Version of the Bible was held in the lower auditorium. Pictures below show: The steering committee planning the rally; the afternoon round-table discussion; Dr. Carl Fuller, the main evening speaker; and a part of the crowd which packed the lower auditorium for the special occasion.

Music



Grace Seminary believes in good music. The Music Department, under the direction of Donald Ogden, offers courses in Basic Music Theory and in Church Music. Opportunity is given to take instrumental and vocal lessons. Each student should have a practical working knowledge of music which will assist him as he faces the responsibilities of directing services of praise and worship in the pastorate or on the mission field.

These pages show some of the special musical talent which has represented the school this year: Donald Ogden, shown at the top of this page in one of his typical daily positions as he leads the singing in chapel; the men's chorus under the direction of H. Crosby Englizian. On the page facing this one is shown the trumpet trio: Edward Smith, Harold Westing, and Edwin Cashman; the quartet: Roy Clark, Gene Witzky, Dean Risser, and Russell Irwin; the Collegiate quartet: Lawrence Lawlor, Norbert Darr, Edward Smith, and Robert Coon; the favorite tenor soloist, LeRoy Hawkins, with Ira D. Halvorsen at the piano; and another instrumental group: Dean Fetterhoff, Beverly Page, and Richard Messner.



Activities

Fall

The Fall Retreat provides an opportunity to trade classroom routine for this special occasion to renew friendships and meet new students and their families. As in previous years the event took place at Camp Alexander Mack.

Retreat

But, in contrast to previous years, the parade featured crepe-paper streamers, honking horns, and police escort through Warsaw. About 80 cars formed the parade. Pictures on these pages depict some of the activities of the day.

Faculty Reception

September 8 the faculty received the incoming students and welcomed back former ones at the Faculty Reception. The Registrar reported a total of 186 had enrolled in school, an increase over the 174 last year, and the 1950 total of 165. The students represented thirteen denominations, and came from 21 states and Canada. The program at the reception was directed by John Whitcomb. Dr. McClain welcomed the students and Richard DeArmey gave the response. Dr. Paul Bauman presented an illustrated prophetic lecture. Refreshments were served by the faculty wives.

Seminary Women's Fellowship

MRS. SCOTT WEAVER, Chairman

PARTIES

Under the direction of the Student Activities Chairman, Joel Kettenring, the social program of Grace Seminary provided opportunities for relaxation and wholesome Christian Fellowship.

The top pictures show action at the Junior Treat, when the real "Juniors" were given a chance to show off their fathers. Faculty and students alike joined in the games.

The middle pictures show season parties. The Valentine party competition in poster making uncovered a lot of hidden talent. The "hard-times" party at Halloween wasn't so "hard" as there seemed to be plenty of pumpkin pie.

In the lower picture may be seen the gathering at the Crystal Dairy Bar when the single women of the Seminary, under the direction of Dean of Women Mrs. Conard Sandy, entertained the bachelors of the school.

SCHOOL IMPROVEMENTS

A school is more than four walls and a roof. Some improvements are called for each year. The usual method is to send out envelopes for the monthly-payment plan preferred by many of the friends of the school. Pictures show a volunteer group preparing the envelopes, and Dr. Boyer, treasurer, receiving some of the gifts.

Many improvements are provided in special ways: Classes present gifts such as projectors and electric typewriters; friends provide window blinds and picture screens as shown below; through the generosity of the Women's Missionary Council and interested friends, the Seminary Kitchen was transformed into a much needed and appreciated Snack-Shop.

Outstanding also are the student-sponsored improvements, which include grading the front lawn, and the special project this year of putting acoustical tile on the auditorium ceiling.

"Bodily Exercise

Though intercollegiate sports are not yet a part of the activities of Grace Seminary, every opportunity is given for physical exercise for the collegiate students in their class schedule. There are shuffleboard courts, ping-pong tables, equipment for volleyball and badminton, and the newly constructed outdoor basketball court.

Basketball did not assume the proportions which it enjoyed in previous years. Having to rent East Wayne Gym for both practice and games limits freedom of planning; and the heavy class schedule, combined with employment at night for so many students, reduces the possibilities of much inter-class competition.

Here are typical shots showing Ralph Garver and LeRoy Hawkins in their balancing and tumbling acts; shuffleboard, ping-pong and badminton. Perhaps ping-pong is the sport that best identifies athletics at Grace.

WHEATON INVITATIONAL

Grace Seminary along with Northern Baptist Theological Seminary and Trinity Seminary, attended an invitational sponsored by the Wheaton College Graduate School on the Wheaton Campus, March 21, 1953. The purpose of the event was to provide Christian fellowship among Theological students of like faith.

A basketball tournament, ping-pong, volleyball and a conducted tour of the campus filled the morning. The afternoon activities included an open-forum discussion concerning the Revised Standard Version of the Bible. Dr. Boyer represented Grace Seminary on the panel.

The climax of the day was the banquet in the new dining hall under the direction of m.c. Dr. Frank Neuburg, president of Wheaton Graduate School. Phil Foxwell, noted Christian magician, entertained the group following the banquet.

Annual Staff

A yearbook does not produce itself. The encouragement and help of many different people is required, and greatly appreciated. The staff has given much time to the preparation of this volume, and hopes that it will bring enjoyment and blessing to each of the readers as they look it over from year to year.

Special mention should be made of the patience and understanding of the wives and families of the staff members; the work of Homer Miller and Mary Dukeshire on the Diary, the assistance of Archer Baum in photography, the help of Joe Sargent in layout and promotion, and the cooperation of the advertisers. F. B. Miller assisted with the engravings which were produced by the Fort Wayne Engraving Company. The Annual was printed by the E. V. Publishing House of Nappanee, and bound by the Free Methodist Publishing House of Winona Lake. The covers were designed by Charles Rose, and made by the Kingsport Press of Nashville, Tenn.

SEPTEMBER

We remember empty halls rapidly filling on Registration Day, with the lines forming outside the dean's office; oh, to be a senior and sweep right in. Receiving lines a few days later at the faculty reception; everyone welcome—no forced smiles. Convocation the next morning, with Bernard Schneider delivering the address from the eleventh chapter of Acts. Student chapel, with testimonies of how the Lord had led to Grace. Election of class officers. E. C. Ralston, God's man in God's place, back from labor camps in the Southwest. The homiletic seminar of Harold Arrington (John 1:14), and Larry Bratton (John 1:29). And of course the Great Parade to the Fall Retreat—80 cars, plumes waving, with special traffic direction from Officer McClain and others. Later more cars, softball (Collegiates 14, Seminary 13—"Thousands were rejoicing while others were cast down"), London Bridge for the younger set. Food for all. In the afternoon "The Cremation of Sam McGee," by John Reed, and devotions by Bill Foster, in the United States by the courtesy of Canada. Classes again and Conard Sandy's chapel talk on Ambition ("It's the zigging and zagging which wears us out"). The sermons on the Resurrection by Bill Burk (John 2:19), and Bob Chick (John 3:3). Dr. McClain's stirring and practical admonitions on soul-winning during the Christ for Everyone campaign. Alumnus Patrick Henry's message from Job on suffering ("Fly . . . . . ., sinner!").

OCTOBER

We remember Charles Taber's words of testimony before he and Betty left for educational missionary service in Africa. Roy Clark's (John 3:19), and Thomas Craghead's (John 3:29), seminar sermons. Dr. Bauman's exposition of Acts 8 on the Christian as soul-winner. Harold Etling's messages during the evangelistic campaign at the Winona Lake Brethren Church. The sermons by Dayton Cundiff (John 4:13, 14), and William Foster (John 4:20-24). Students from various regioual groups looking photogenic for Photographer Bauman. Dr. McClain's consideration from II Corinthians 8 of the Christian and money. Seminar messages by Arthur Gordon (John 5:22, 23), and William Halliburton (John 5:39). Jack Connor's radiant testimony for the Lord as he played his vibra harp and marimba. Dr. Hoyt's encouraging chapel talk on the uses of temptation for the believer. And how glad we were to see Ivan French back at school and to hear how the Lord had blessed him and his wife even through the automobile accident which delayed them. The homiletic seminar with Herman Hein (John 6:29), and Charles Horne (John 6:53), as speakers.

The hard times party after exams under direction of Joel Kettenring—times not too hard, plenty of pumpkin pie. Meanwhile students' kindergarten kiddies, masks in hand, prepare to "trick or treat."

NOVEMBER

We remember the excitement over the election, and Dr. McClain's chapel talk on the subject—not that he would tell us how to vote, of course. Then there was Rev. R. C. Henry's sermon on soul-winning from Psalm 126. And the blessing from the annual fall day of prayer, with confession, intercession, and praise filling the morning. Florent Toirac's account of the Lord's wonderful working in Cuba and Haiti. The student body, going on record, with tape recordings made of chapel services. The seminar sermons of Jesse Humberd (John 7:17), and Russell Irwin (John 7:46). Captain Bunde, of the United States Air Force, warning us of Modernism. Joel Kettenring speaking on John 8:12, and Ross King on John 8:44.

DECEMBER

We remember the pictures the Annual Staff handed out, and James Hammer's paste-up of same. The public-spirited students who put up the acoustical tile in the auditorium. The homiletic seminar of William Kolb (John 9:41), and Russell Konves (John 10:1). The winter Bible Conference with its able expositors of the Word: Dr. F. J. Neuburg, Wheaton College; Dr. F. C. Torrey, Calvary Independent Church, Lancaster, Pennsylvania; Dr. Nathan Stone, Moody Bible Institute, Chicago; Dr. Ralph Stoll, Calvary Baptist Church, Altoona, Pennsylvania. Rev. Dodson's urgent message on intercessory prayer. Leonard Meznar's (John 10:28), and Homer Miller's (John 11:25, 26) seminar sermons. Mr. Bess's magnificent message from Isaiah 9: 6, 7 which sent us off for Christmas vacation rejoicing in the hope of the coming of our King to reign.

Remember . . .

JANUARY

We remember Herman Centz, in the first chapel message of the new year, exhorting us to closer fellowship with Christ. The homiletic seminar of Irvin Miller (John 12:13), and John Mitchell (John 12:21). Ding Tueling's breathtaking luminous chalk picture of the translation of Elijah.

And the Junior Treat, with Dick Messner as master of ceremonies, and a program of films, games, and comic readings. Dr. Wm. J. Sweeting's warnings against Satan at the convocation for the new semester. The sweet presence of the Spirit of God in our midst during the day of prayer, with heart-searching messages from Don Fullerton, of the Princeton Evangelical Fellowship.

Dr. Garman's startling account of the influence of apostate church councils on mission fields. Rev. Hugh Hall's message on the different voices in the Second Psalm.

And of course the fire drill, when we briskly sauntered out of the building. The homiletic seminar of Earl Peer (John 12:48), and Wayne Pontius (John 13:26). The testimonies of the new students as to how they were led (and recruited) to Grace.

FEBRUARY

We remember Noel Lyons and his burden for the lost of Europe; our promise to ask the Lord of the harvest to send forth laborers. The sermons of Warren Purdy (John 14:6), and John Reed (John 14:12). Dr. Boyer's meditation on the goodness of God taken from Lamentations. Dr. Mayes' humble testimony of the goodness of God to him. John Strom's (John 15:7), and John Smith's (John 15:16) homiletic seminar. John Rea's farewell testimony before he left for the Holy Land with Dr. Free's archaeological expedition. Rev. Richard Jackson (Dick, before he was an alumnus), and his message on the greatness of God in providing our salvation. Don Tschetter's sermon on prayer from John 16:24. The alumni conference, with all its earnest exposition of the Word in the light of the minister's needs.

MARCH

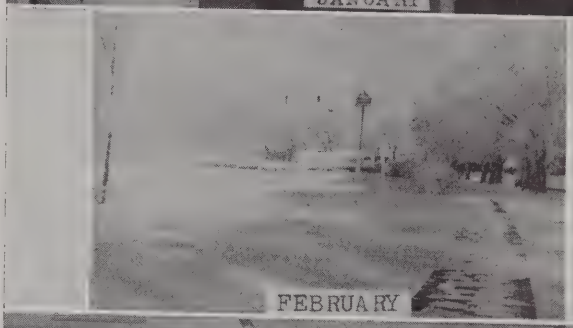
We remember John Buck's challenge concerning Child Evangelism as a calling. The film shown by Mr. Machlin relating the conversion of a Jew. "Banderilla," the film showing the extent of government persecution of Protestants in Spain. Dr. McClain's message on divine healing, "Was Christ Punished for our Diseases?" (No!). Bernard Sneider's chapel message dealing with the Prodigal's elder brother. Dr. Ferrin, of Providence Bible Institute, and his analysis of the condition of modern man. Rev. R. I. Humberd, speaking to us of the symbols of the Holy Spirit, and illustrating from one of his clear and detailed charts. Rev. Smelser, of the Cleveland Hebrew Mission, telling of the way the Lord has worked in men's lives through the Mission. The Wheaton Invitational—pleasant and stimulating, with Dr. Boyer representing the school in his scholarly and clearly reasoned appraisal of the Revised Standard Version of the New Testament. And we shall never forget how thrilled we were when Elmer Sachs and Mitsuo Fuchida spoke in chapel, and we realized that a man who had once come against America with bombs, was now coming in Christian love with a Bible.

APRIL

We remember term papers due in O. T. Oh, Easter vacation was so full I forgot. . . .! Seminar sermons of Earl Wagner (John 17:24), and Gene Witzky (John 20:29). The reading by Seniors of critical monographs and theses. Seminar message by Robert Griffin (John 21:22). George Cone, Sr., in his exposition of Jude. Rev. Sam McDill's message to Christian parents. Professor Whitcomb's vacation with the measles.

MAY

We remember final examinations. Commencement.



Student Employment

During the past few years, the Seminary Faculty, Student Body, and their families, have increased in number from much less than a hundred, until now the total is over four hundred.

Such an increase requires more than just additional food or shelter. It requires also work for the heads of the many families to assist them in providing for the necessities of life. It means that many more jobs, good jobs, must exist where a few jobs sufficed just a few years ago.

The Lord has been most gracious in this respect. He has led factories to be built and enlarged, split shifts, special hours, adjusted working conditions, and other methods to be used to provide sufficient work in the immediate area for the expanded student body.

The pictures on this page illustrate some of the students in the various types of work regularly done by them in working their way through Seminary.

On the pages following, some of these employers, and others have placed advertising. Their cooperation has been vital in the production of this yearbook. They deserve your support and patronage. Tell them you appreciate their interest in the Seminary.

OUR OBJECTIVES

1. To establish and maintain Jewish evangelistic centers, and to employ every known and approved method for leading Jews to Christ.
2. To prepare and distribute timely literature for the definite purpose of making the Gospel of Christ intelligible to the modern Jewish mind.
3. To co-operate with, and to strengthen and sustain to the fullest possible extent, all kindred agencies for bringing Jews to Christ.
4. To assist local churches and union evangelistic campaigns desiring to include Jews within the scope of their ministry.
5. To use radio facilities for broadcasting the Gospel message to Israel, in Yiddish and in English.
6. To co-operate with approved colleges, seminaries, and Bible Schools in preparing workers for definite evangelistic work among the Jews.
7. To prepare for the widest possible postwar evangelistic activity among Jews at home and abroad, having especially in mind the rehabilitation of Jewish life in Europe and the anticipated growth of the Palestine settlement.
8. To maintain a center for Prophetic Bible Study and Interpretation at Winona Lake, Indiana, and to extend the comfort and inspiration of prophetic truth to God's people in various parts of the country by means of Bible conferences.

All contributors are automatically members of the Association and privileged to vote for the election of the Advisory Council. These in turn elect the directorate. The association, by its corporate setup, is always directly amenable to the contributors.

Please feel free to ask any questions, or write for our literature. Your prayerful fellowship will be greatly appreciated.

Christian Cards Co.
Winona Lake, Indiana

If you know all 3, you're exceptional. Most folks know only one—Lincoln. Yet the other two were presidents who preceded and succeeded Lincoln—Buchanan (right) and Johnson (left). Few recognize them because they have not been kept before the public YEAR AFTER YEAR like Lincoln, whose fame GROWS with time.

Your Sunday School and church will GROW, too, just as they are kept before the public. Occasional publicity—a splash now and then—won't help much. It's the little effort WEEK AFTER WEEK that counts—like sending out weekly cards to absentees and prospects. Folks have a habit of coming IN where friendly cards go OUT. If you don't have a regular weekly absentee follow-up system, why not start one now? You'll never be sorry! Read Luke 15:4.
